

Why advertise in FlashFlood NEWS?

FlashFlood NEWS is a semi-annual PDF newsletter which offers information and education on topics that are of current interest in the field of floodplain management and the National Flood Insurance Program. Published by the North Carolina Association of Floodplain Managers (www.ncafpm.org), FlashFlood includes reports from the North Carolina regional representatives, educational opportunities, and membership information, in addition to topical articles of current interest written by our board members, government officials, and consultants in the field of floodplain management. Articles include topics such as floodplain mapping, coastal issues, mitigation planning, and stormwater management. We also have space reserved for job openings in the field of floodplain management.

Our targeted audience is the members of the North Carolina Association of Floodplain Managers (NCAFPM), but FlashFlood NEWS is also posted on the NCAFPM website and can be viewed by any interested readers.
